He has also been engaged in some of the most significant cross-border insolvency and restructuring matters in Singapore.

Experience

- Acting for the liquidators in relation to the investigations and potential action (including claims of audit negligence) against the former auditors and officers of Hyflux Ltd, a well-known water treatment company in respect of a public-private service concession.
- Acting for one of Singapore's largest banks, United Overseas Bank Ltd (“UOB”) in its claims for fraud and conspiracy against, amongst others, Lippo Marina Collection Pte Ltd (“Lippo Marina”), a property development company within the well-known Lippo Group, relating to UOB's grant of mortgage loans amounting to an aggregate sum of S$181 million for the purchase of luxury condominium units at The Marina Collection at Sentosa Cove developed by Lippo Marina. This case included an interlocutory application involving a complex area of law pertaining to whether the fraud exception applies to prevent attribution of the knowledge of an employee who had been fraudulent and/or who had committed a breach of duty to the employer. The team also successfully argued against an appeal by the defendants before the High Court.
- Representing Malayan Banking Berhad before the Singapore International Commercial Court (“SICC”) in a dispute with Barclays Bank PLC, involving SWIFT payments. The case is the first of its kind in the common law world, involving novel issues of banking law relating to the allocation of risk/liability in the area of cross-border funds transfers: see the decision in Malayan Banking Bhd v Barclays Bank PLC [2019] 4 SLR 109. The SICC's decision has ramifications on the jurisprudence and practice of bank payments around the world.
- Representing a working group of bank lenders comprising approximately S$930 million of the unsecured debt of Hyflux Limited, in the well-publicised restructuring, judicial management and subsequent liquidation of the Hyflux Group.
- Advising Court appointed receivers and managers of companies affiliated with/related to a Russian oligarch on securing assets in Singapore, Cyprus, Belize and BVI pursuant to a receivership order made in Singapore.
- Representing two offshore commodity financing institutions in the restructuring of the Antanium Group (previously known as the Rhodium Group).
- Acting for and advising the judicial manager of Opus Offshore Pte Ltd, the Singapore subsidiary in a larger group that provides marine and drilling services; as well as acting for the joint provisional liquidators of Opus Offshore Ltd (the parent company of Opus Offshore Pte Ltd) in proceedings in the High Court of Singapore.

- Representing UOB in a widely reported multi-million dollar intellectual property dispute involving a currency conversion system – Dynamic Currency Conversion for Card Payment Systems, which spanned more than a decade.
- Representing a shipping company in a complex claim (worth approximately US$50 million) commenced by its former parent company concerning, among other things, questions of foreign illegality and the breach of a deed of counter guarantee.
- Acting for and advising Mr Lim Wee Li, the former CEO and Chairman of the Catalist-listed Kitchen Culture Holdings Ltd, in relation to allegations of breach of fiduciary duties, conspiracy, hiring improprieties, etc.
- Representing a judicial manager in proceedings involving claims of audit negligence arising out of the falsified accounts of a Singapore public listed company with operations in China.
- Advising in the restructuring of a company involved in the distribution of electronic components internationally.
